MEMORANDUM

MEMO TO: HONORABLE TOM C. COLE, PRESIDING JUDGE

FROM: MARTIN J. KRIZAY, CHIEF ADULT PROBATION OFFICER

DATE: SEPTEMBER 11, 2000

SUBJECT: ENTRY SALARY-FERNANDO ACOSTA

As you know, the treatment component of the Drug Court Program is in transition. The Department has advertised and interviewed candidates for the position of Substance Abuse Counselor to provide in-house treatment services to the Drug Court Program population.

I am happy to recommend Fernando Acosta for appointment as a Substance Abuse Counselor. Mr. Acosta is a bilingual, Certified Substance Abuse Counselor through the Arizona Board of Behavioral Health Examiners and has nine (9) years experience in the counseling field. His experience includes administrative oversight of substance abuse treatment for the Excel Group, Catholic Community Services and the Family Center. I am confident Fernando will be an excellent addition to our effort to provide bilingual, in-house treatment for Drug Court. Because of Fernando Acosta's exceptional qualifications, I am applying to you for approval to place him at Grade 22, Step 6 ($38,168) of the Judicial Pay Plan, pursuant to Rule 12.03 Entry Salary of the Rules and Guidelines of the Judicial Merit System, effective Monday, September 25, 2000.
